Dear Br. Phelps.

Your "Subscriber's Random Remarks" is on hand, & there also came at the same time an other article to the same point, longer than yours, & well written. It is by a minister, now in the city (Br. Harding) & meets "Subscriber" very handsomely. It has seemed hardly worth while to publish them both, & I have been at a loss what to do. But I have thought best to insert his piece this week, as it would be substantially gaining the point you seek, & show also that there is a rallying to your defence from different quarters. You can see what is said, & then if you want your piece inserted, or another piece we will readily do it upon being notified.

You will see a continuation this week, of Mann's articles. (Caution please insert) Sam Sawyer of Medway left us this week. He says the committee of the Board are to meet in this city soon, & think this week, to decide upon a report. Dr. Woods has written me & sent it to some of the committee. Unless it is materially
